

Press Release

Contact: Scott Williams
248-789-8200

The R. J. Marshall Company Announces the Acquisition of Gruber Systems Consumables Business

October 28, 2014

SOUTHFIELD, MI—10/28/14 – Today The R.J. Marshall Company announces the acquisition of Gruber Systems “consumables” business. The new company is called Gruber Supplies & Accessories, Marshall-Gruber Company, LLC, A Subsidiary of The R J Marshall Company, doing business as Gruber Supplies & Accessories. The acquisition includes all manufacturing activities in Mansfield, Texas and warehousing activities in Rockledge, Florida. “We are very excited about this acquisition as it demonstrates our commitment to the cast polymer and composite industries. This will expand our current product offerings and will provide a platform for future products”, Mr. Richard Marshall.

About The R.J. Marshall Company: The R.J. Marshall Company was founded by Richard J. and Joan E. Marshall in May of 1978. The company has grown to five manufacturing locations in the United States and a stocking & distribution warehouse in Belgium. The R.J. Marshall Company produces a variety of filler and additive solutions for the thermoset and thermoplastic industries. For more information about The R.J. Marshall Company, visit www.rjmarshall.com

Gruber history: For almost 50 years, Gruber has focused on the manufacturing needs of the composite and cast polymer manufacturer.

Gruber Supplies & Accessories offers Seamless® adhesive, Granatex® solid surface fillers, Duraflo® whirlpool supplies, Gruber Care as well as many other manufacturing supply items and raw materials.

For more information regarding this announcement contact The R J Marshall Company at 248.353.4100 or Gruber Supplies & Accessories at 866.260.6457